Dear Mr. Shelton:

We of the Yale Broadcasting Company, an entirely student owned and operated organization, have just recently completed a film on college radio in general, WYBC in particular. It touches upon the other Ivy league radio stations and shows the variety of activity involved in operating an organization such as this. We thought you might possibly like to preview it for use by the USIA, since it is student produced and describes student activity. I would appreciate hearing your comments on this.

Sincerely yours,
